Press Release

TMK Takes Part in Hannover Messe

TMK, a leading global manufacturer of tubular products for the oil and gas industry, will take part in Hannover Messe, an international industrial trade fair to be held from 8 to 12 April 2013 in Hannover, Germany. The company's stand (B17) will be located in Hall 26 (central Russian display).

On the first day of the event, Dmitry Pumpyanskiy, Chairman of TMK's Board of Directors, will participate in panel discussion "Germany and Russia: Open Markets for Trade and Investments", which will be a part of the German-Russian Business Summit "Partner Country Russia". The summit is organized by the Committee on Eastern European Economic Relations and the Russian Ministry of Industry and Trade. It will be attended by top executives of the largest industrial and financial companies and public officials of both countries. Russian President Vladimir Putin and German Chancellor Angela Merkel are expected to open the Summit.

During the exhibition TMK's stand will showcase the Company's new products and provide thorough information on its business.
