Press Release

TMK completes shipment of pipes for North Caspian project

TMK, one of the world's leading producers of pipes for the oil and gas industry, has completed the shipment of tubular products for the construction of deep water pipelines at the Filanovsky oil and gas condensate field in the North Caspian Sea, under development by Lukoil.

Since July 2012, TMK has supplied 70,300 tonnes of pipes with external three-layer polyethylene coating, including 10,800 tonnes of seamless line pipes and 59,500 tonnes of longitudinal welded large diameter pipes.

“Construction and operation of deep water pipelines requires equipment that meets stringent safety and environmental security standards. The fact that TMK is supplying welded and seamless products for the construction of such underwater pipelines further proves the high quality and reliability of our pipes and TMK’s ability to ensure the most broad tubular products offering for the oil and gas industry,” commented Alexander Shiryayev, TMK CEO.
